Agreement Reached on General Frinciples

Shall be reported at the Cabinet Council today.

The Five Ministers' Conference

In the 5th Five Ministers' Conference on the 20th, the Foreign, Army and Navy Ministers introduced in writing the points which had been so far discussed and asserted by them. After making a complementary explanation respectively, they asked the opinions of the Finance Minister and the Premier. As a result, it was made clear that, in spite of their different stands of diplomacy, national defence and finance, fundamentally none of them did not hold a different opinion in understanding the fact that Japan was faced with an unexampled crisis. As for the measures for coping with the situation, however, they have their own views and it should rather have a serious effect upon carrying out the future policies to forcibly ask for the consent of all. Therefore, only the fundamental principles were decided in haste and the following statement was made. The said fundamental principles were also decided to be reported at the extraordinary Cabinet meeting on the 21st by the Premier as their mutual understanding, without being made out in any memorandum or other document. The outline of the above understanding is as follows:

(omitted)

 That the diplomacy should be based upon the principle of international co-operation, and that especially, various measures should be taken to promote friendly relations with the neighboring China, America and Russia.

(omitted)

Official Announcement

In the Five Ministers' Conference, after a frank exchange of views on the fundamentals of adjusting diplomacy, national defence and finance, mutual understanding was bettered and agreement was reached on their general principles.
